FAST FACTS!

Thank you for your interest in The Philadelphia Independence Awards!

- During the 2017-18 inaugural year, 14 schools enrolled in the program. In year 2018-19, 20 schools enrolled in the program - an increase of 40%! In the 2019-20 year, over 20 schools have enrolled. In 2024, 30 schools are enrolled!

- The Philadelphia Independence Awards hosts a free Theater Workshop Day for students of all participating schools. Artists from Philadelphia's premiere professional theaters - The Arden Theatre, 1812 Productions, Lantern Theater Company, and Walnut Street Theatre - present interactive workshops hosted at Kimmel Cultural Campus!

- In 2020-21, the Kimmel Center Cultural Campus sponsored entry to the National High School Musical Theatre Awards, the Jimmy Awards, which affords two Philadelphia-area students the opportunity to perform on a Broadway stage! Both Philadelphia nominees placed in the Top Eight and received scholarships! In 2023, Jackson Manning placed as a semifinalist!

- The Philadelphia Independence Awards began the "Give a Musical" grant offering schools financial assistance to produce a musical. Schools fundraise individually and at the awards show. To date, we have donated approximately $13,000 in grants to schools in need.
