KIMMEL CULTURAL CAMPUS

Take a Chance on Musical Theater Dance! presented by the Walnut Street Theatre

Take our musical theatre dance class for all levels that will challenge you to strengthen your movement physically AND mentally! Led with positivity and possibility, get ready to have a joyous time.

Please bring clothing and footwear that permit movement.

The Physical Actor: Embodying Character presented by Arden Theatre Company

Get up and moving in this interactive physical theatre workshop. Participants will come away with tips and tricks on how to build character and relationships through movement; a versatile set of physical vocabulary, and games and exercises for building community and confidence through physical exploration. Please wear clothing and shoes that do not inhibit movement.

Theatrical Warmups presented by Lantern Theater Company

This workshop will focus on different means of warming up as preparation for your artistic work. Be it a rehearsal, performance, or basic skill and ensemble-building, these games and exercises can lead you to a fuller state of readiness. Participants do not need to bring any materials.

Bewitching Improv! presented by Paper Doll Ensemble

Join us for fast-paced improvisations around the topic of "witches" to generate original scenelets. We'll explore ensemble building, collaborative script writing, and other devised theatre techniques.

Acting the Song presented by Theatre Horizon

This workshop will explore the art of bringing songs to life by applying fundamental acting technique to music. Students should come prepared to sing but will not need to prepare any materials in advance.

Musical Theatre Audition Workshop presented by The Brind School of Theater Arts at University of the Arts

Bring your 16-bar cut and we will refine and define your musical theatre audition process! Auditioning is something that everyone can get better at doing. Actor, coach, and professor Ben Dibble will help you make your mark in the room whether you are singing a traditional MT song or pop/rock! Learn tips about cutting music, working with the accompanist, and being your authentic self in the room!

Students should come prepared with sheet music for a song to sing.
